

Remote consultation

How to consult with staff when normal meetings are impossible

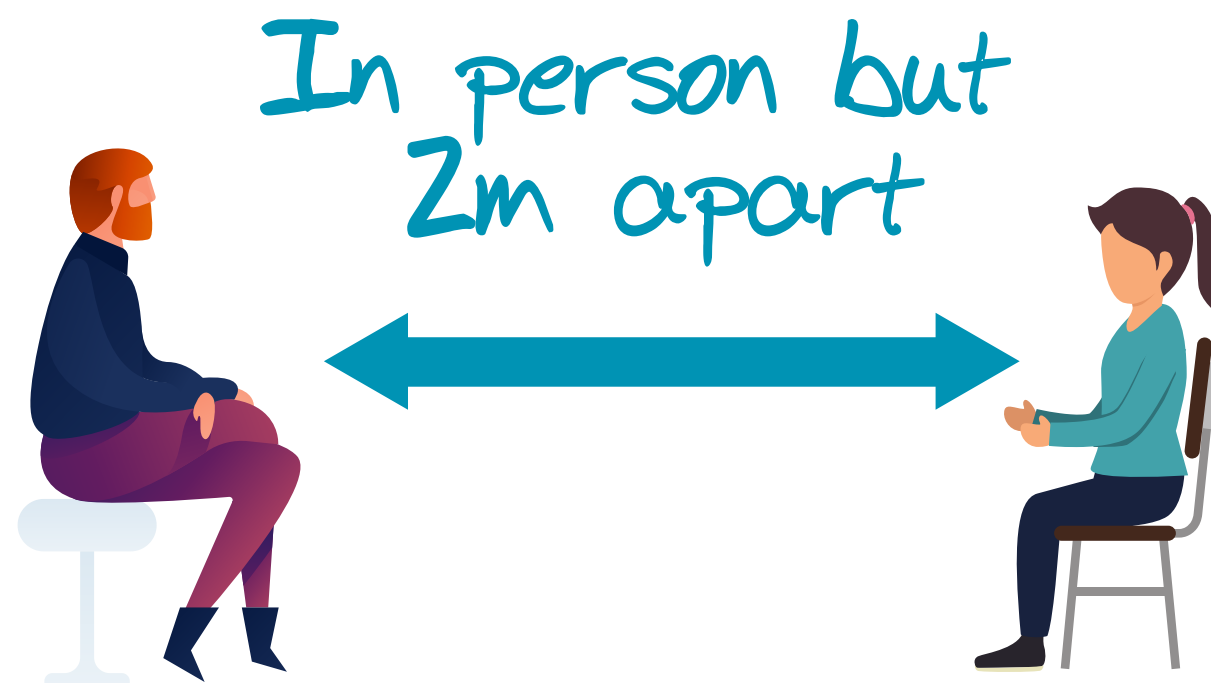

Many employers are having to make changes to employees' contracts as a result of the COVID-19 crisis.

These require consultation and consent but how do you do that when you can't conduct normal meetings? Here are some ideas:

Telephone

Online survey

Email

Facebook groups

Video conference

Remember:

- There is nothing saying consultation has to be done in person
- Take into account the views of your staff as to what they would prefer
- Make sure whatever consultation method you use doesn't exclude anyone
